GUEST SPEAKER:

BLANCA LITTLE

Born and raised in Havana, Cuba, Blanca migrated with her family to Cleveland, Ohio in her teens. She attended college and graduated with a degree in international business in 1982. After working 16 years as an auditor for insurance companies, she heard the call of God to change career paths and teach elementary school in an urban setting. Blanca taught in both public and charter schools in New Haven. After earning a master's degree in Elementary Education from the University of Bridgeport, she became the founding Director of St. James' Christian Academy (later named All Nations Christian Academy). Blanca continues as Director of All Nations Academy and serves alongside her husband who is the Pastor of All Nations Christian Church in New Haven.
