GUEST SPEAKER:

Ashley Newton

Ashley has taught six years in a Christian school, a year of homeschool, and spent seven years as a stay at home Mom. Last year, God called her to walk into an urban public school as a para and to trust Him. Ashley is still in awe at how God moved her into teaching kindergarten full time, and faithfully brought parents, teachers, and students, to her door to pray with. She is part of a home church group and lives with her husband and three children in Middlefield.

Ashley graduated from Eastern University in Saint Davids, PA and has just completed her course work for her Master's degree in Elementary Education.

Christian EDUCATORS

Association International

For the Least of These

Saturday, Nov. 7, 2020
10-12PM

CEAI Invites you to gather with dedicated educators and support staff who want to make a difference in the lives of students and encourage and enable Christians serving professionally in public and private education.

Location: Fireside Room in the First Church of Wethersfield, 250 Main St., Wethersfield, CT

*Social Distancing and masks required when entering and leaving the building.

Our mission is to Encourage, Equip, and Empower Educators according to Biblical principles. Meetings are open to all educators (public and private), support staff, parents, as well as anyone interested in education. There is no charge to attend.
